

To whom it may concern: I don't think unlicensed operators of any kind should be allowed access to amateur frequencies - especially the 70cm band. Its inconsistent why allow foreign people access, but not allow other Americans privileges to the same band. Finally I think this would also be a hindrance on enforcement especially if these FRS radios are interfering with normal - already allocated amateur services like calling channels, repeater services and simplex channels.